JazzBeet

Ludwig van Beethoven used improvisation as a creative source for his compositions, which changed the (musical) world. His courage, his curiosity and his great musicality are the inspiration for the competition „JazzBeet“ of the Jazzfest Bonn. From 25 to 30 May 2020 we invite selected trio formations to Beethoven's birthplace. The aim of the competition is: Find your own voice, think laterally, venture something new and have the courage to take artistic risks.

Tender and conditions of participation

Stylistics:

All styles of modern and contemporary jazz are permitted. Own compositions are expressly desired.

Duration and program:

Each band has a program of about 40 minutes. One piece of music deals in an open way with the artistic idea of a work by Ludwig van Beethoven.

Price:

- Prize money up to 5,000 Euro
- Promotion and visualization of the creative work of all invited bands
- All travel expenses and accommodation will be covered
- Performance at the Jazzfest Bonn of the JazzBeet-winner at the final concert in 2020

Application deadline:

The competition will be announced in September 2019, the application deadline is 30 November 2019. Further information can be found at www.jazzfest-bonn.de/jazzbeet
